

South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame

Inductee Nomination Form

The purpose of the South Carolina Athletics Hall of Fame (SCAHOF) is to recognize, honor and celebrate individuals who have brought distinction to themselves and the State through significant contributions to athletics.

Any person may nominate an individual for consideration by the SCAHOF Selection Committee. The following are basic guidelines for considering a nominee:

- Individuals must either be from South Carolina or achieved their success in South Carolina;
- Individuals who have made outstanding contributions and achieved high levels of success, distinction and/or recognition;
- Individuals should have an honorable and respectable reputation/public image.

Criteria

Consideration of nominees for induction will have specific minimum criteria used for determining eligibility and viability of all nominations. The general, minimum standards for considering nominations are:

1. High levels of achievement during college and/or professional athletics participation, or other evidence of honor, distinction or service in college and/or professional athletic programs;
2. A person of sound character, judgement and distinction in such ways that represent SCAHOF in a positive manner.
